8. What is your approximate yearly income? $_____
9. Do you expect to inherit a substantial amount of property? Yes _____ No _____
If yes, please indicate the nature and extent of this property and the state in which it is located:

10. Do you presently have a Will? ____ If so, what is the date on the Will? _____
Please provide a digital or hard copy of prior will(s) and codicil(s).
11. Do you have a trust? _____
If so, please list the full name and date: _____
Please provide a digital or hard copy.
12. If you own real property in another state, please indicate which state: _____

13. If you are a beneficiary under a trust established by someone other than yourself, please indicate below:

14. If you are a beneficiary under a trust, please indicate whether you have been given a power of appointment and whether you want to exercise this power:

15. Describe in general terms how you wish to distribute your property under your will or trust. Who should receive your property on your death? For example, should it be distributed in equal shares to your children, to siblings, to friends, or to a charity? If to anyone other than to all of your children, please list specific names of people or organizations:

16. Contingent Beneficiaries. If all of the people you have listed in your answer to Question 15 die before you, to whom do you want to leave your property? (Typically, clients choose to have their estate divided among any living relatives (heirs) or given to a church or charity.)

17. Appointing a GUARDIAN: If you have children under 18, the guardian is the individual or couple whom you designate to raise your children in the event both parents should pass away. The guardian generally will receive distributions from your trustee for the support, maintenance, health and education of your children. Whom do you want to appoint as guardian to raise your children if you and your children’s other parent pass away? Please indicate a successor if the person or couple initially named cannot serve, guardians must be 18 years of age or older. Only married couples can be co-guardians. Gender is requested.

	GUARDIAN	Relationship
Guardian:
1st Successor(s):
2nd Successor(s):

18. Choosing your EXECUTOR: The Executor is the person you appoint to settle the affairs of your estate (i.e., the person who will be responsible for probating your Will, filing tax returns, and distributing assets to the beneficiaries, among other duties). Your spouse, adult children, a bank, another relative, or a very reliable and long-time friend may be named as Executor, to serve individually or with other Co-Executors. Whom do you want to appoint as Executor of your estate? Please indicate successors in the event the person initially named cannot serve. Executors must be 18 years of age or older.

	EXECUTOR	Relationship
Executor:
1st Successor(s):
2nd Successor(s):

19. Naming a TRUSTEE: If you elect to have a trust as part of your estate plan, the Trustee is the person or entity who will be responsible for the management of property in your trust or for trusts for children or other beneficiaries. An individual or financial institution may serve as Trustee. Trustees may serve individually or with other Co-Trustees. If a trust is appropriate for you, you would typically be the initial Trustee. A successor Trustee will serve if you become incapacitated and will administer the trust when you pass. Whom do you want to appoint as successor Trustee or Co-Trustees? Please indicate successors if the person initially named is unable to serve. Please list how such person(s) are related to you (brother, sister, friend, etc.). We will name you as the initial Trustee, unless you indicate otherwise. Trustees must be 18 years of age or older.

	TRUSTEES FOR YOUR REVOCABLE LIVING TRUST	Relationship
Trustee: (typically you)
1st Successor(s):
2nd Successor(s):
3rd Successor(s):

If a trust is created on your death to hold and manage property for your children or other beneficiaries, whom do you want to appoint as Trustee or as Co-Trustees? (If you want the same persons listed as successor trustees above to act as Trustees for your children’s trusts or other beneficiaries’ trusts, you may note “same as above”.) Trustees must be 18 years of age or older. (If you want the same persons listed as successor trustees above to act as Trustees for your children’s trusts or other beneficiaries’ trusts, you may note “same as above”.)

	TRUSTEES FOR CHILDREN
Trustee(s): (not you)
1st Successor(s):
2nd Successor(s):

Most people believe that their child or children should not receive total control of an inheritance at a young age. You may decide to leave an inheritance in trust for a child's lifetime, perhaps allowing the child to become trustee of his or her trust at a predetermined age. There are advantages to setting up a child's trust in this fashion that we can discuss. Please keep in mind that the trustee of the trust will be directed to use the trust assets to provide for the child's needs until the child reaches this age.

If appropriate, at what age do you want your children or other beneficiaries to have control over their trust distribution(s)? Age _____

HIPAA:

- c. If you are incapacitated, your DIRECTIVE TO PHYSICIANS (commonly called a Living Will) directs your physician and medical power of attorney to follow your wishes about whether or not you want artificial procedures used to sustain your life. One of the benefits of this document is to take the burden from your spouse or children of having to make the decision if you are incapacitated. Would you like us to prepare a DIRECTIVE TO PHYSICIANS setting out your wishes? _____
21. SAFEKEEPING: These are important documents. I encourage you to place the originals of these documents in a safe place. My office will maintain electronic (scanned) copies in the event your agent, executor, or trustee needs them. So that we can help your agent, executor, or trustee find your original documents, where do you intend to store the originals?

22. REAL PROPERTY: If you have real property (i.e., your residence, vacation home, mineral interests, or other land) in Texas or another state and we are creating a trust for you, it is highly recommended, with some limited exceptions, that you transfer title of your real property into the trust. We can prepare the deed for you to do this for your Texas property.

Please list addresses for all real property you own. Please also note whether each property is your homestead, rental property, farm property, investment property or business property (if more space is needed, attach additional sheets):

Please provide digital or a hard copy of any deed(s) for Texas real property.
